Director & African Members Of Marketing Board Will Hold Meeting

The Nigerian Produce Marketing Company of London will hold its Board meeting in Lagos early next month. As the selling organisation for the Nigeria Produce Marketing Boards, its activities should be of considerable interests to farmers, for it is thought by Company that about 90 per cent of Nigeria's produce is sold in the World Market.

Although the Company's Headquarters is at 5 Buckingham Gate, London, the Board has a majority of African members appointed by the Marketing Boards. They are:

Honourable Sir Adesoji Aderemi, K.B.E., C.M.G. (The Oni of Ife).
Honourable A. Obisesan, O.B.E.
C. A. Nwapa, Esq.,
P. A. Abbi, Esq.,
Mallam Ibrahim Musa Gashash.
Mallam Muhammadu Ribadu.
Mallam Muhammadu Sanusi (Ma'aji of Zaria).

Sir Sydney Phillipson, C.M.G. as well as being Chairman of the Marketing Boards is also Chairman of the Company, he has recently returned from the United Kingdom will preside at the meeting.

The Managing Director, Mr. Eric Crawford Tansley, C.M.G. will arrive in Lagos this week. Mr. Tansley has a world-wide reputation as an expert Cocoa Seller. During the war, he was Marketing Director of the West African Produce Control Board. He is also Managing Director of the Selling Companies for the other British West African Colonies. With such experience, Mr. Tansley creates great confidence in his direction of the operations of the Company.

The fact that the Directors meet periodically in Nigeria creates a more intimate feeling about its work. For although it operates in London its policy is shaped by the Nigerian Marketing Boards.
