Candid Communications.

UNEXPRESSED MESSAGES TO CELEBRITIES NOTORITIES AND OCCASIONALLY NONENTITIES.

To Judge Whitmore Richards, Chester Country Police Court.

Dear Sir,—When Sydney Husband Leavsjey, a lad of nineteen, was charged with stealing three-penny worth of dry bread because he was fatherless and motherless, homeless and starving, you considered it your "painful duty" to sentence him to four months' hard labour. I trust the home Office will consider it a pleasant duty to revise this sentence.

To Sir Alfred Rawlinson, Grosvenor Place, Westminster.

Dear Sir,—When summoned at Marylebone for driving without a motor-licence, it was stated that already you had been convicted seven times for this offence, and that you had been proved guilty of an enormous number of other motoring irregularities. In my opinion your stubborn disregard of the law amounts to deliberate contempt of Court and I trust you will not get off with a 40 shillings fine again.—John Bull 10/12/27.

A RECORD DEBATE.

The members of the Study Circle treated the public to a record debate in the Committee Room of the Glover Memorial Hall in the evening of Monday last under the Chairmanship of His Honour Justice M. L. Tew, when the subject

"Whether Sir Elijah Impeh, the Learned Chief Justice of India was justified in sentencing Nuncomer to death"

was ably handled by both the Pro and Con side; after preliminary remarks the Chairman; Mr. G. D. Francis, who was followed by his supporters, as Leader of the "Pro" side, opened the debate in long but reasoned speech, whilst Mr. S.
Akisanya with his retinue, as Leader of the Opposition rebutted the Pro's arguments in a telling speech: at last the Noes won the "toss", and Mr. Justice Tew promised to forward his Judgment to the Circle in writing

There was a packed house; needless to say, that His Honour controlled the destny of the evening with characteris-coolness.

Floreat, the Study Circle.
