£500 FOR MR. MACDONALD.

Large Bequests to Members of Labour Leader's Family.

Substantial bequests to Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's family were announced yesterday to be a feature of the Will of Miss Florence May Gladstone, of Ladbroke-grove, W., Miss Gladstone, who was 72 when she died last July, left estate in her own disposition worth £44,486, with net personalty £41,143. She left :—

£1,000 between the five children of her late sister Margaret Ethel, who was the wife of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, and £300, to her brother-in-law, Mr. MacDonald himself.

There are other bequests to Charities, etc. The residue, representing the bulk of Miss Gladstone's property, is to be divided equally between her ten nephews and nieces, or their issue if deceased.—The News of the World, 23/9/28.

TORNADO'S TOLL.

Appalling Record of Lives Lost and Damage.

(From our own Correspondent.)

New York Saturday.—Information now available reveals the staggering extent of the disaster caused by the great hurricane, which originated in the Windward Islands, swept over the Caribbean Sea and Eastern Florida, and spent itself in the coastal region here. It is estimated that the storm was responsible for :—

2,700 deaths, and injury to several thousand people ;

850,000 being rendered homeless ; and

Between £30,000,000 and £40,000,000 worth of damage to property.

PortoRico, West Indies, was the district that suffered worst of all. One thousand of the inhabitants perished, 20,000 were rendered homeless, and the damage to property exceeded £20,000,000. Florida suffered next severely with over 1,200 dead, 15,000 homeless, and £10,000,000 estimated damage. Six hundred bodies, chiefly of negroes, have been buried by the National Guard of Florida State.—News of the World. 23/9/28.

White's Golden Male Tonic

DOUBLE STRENGTH.

Whenver a woman has not been in the family way for a long time, the fault is usually set down to some disease or other in her generative organs.

Now while it is true that many women suffer from disease, yet many times the fault lies with the man, owing to weakness or some other disease of the male organs of generation. White's Golden Male Tonic (Double-Strength) is calculated to give full vigour to the man, and to remove all diseases which prevent breeding. Every sensible man ought to use two bottles every month, to cure or prevent weakness of the generative organs.
