PUBLISHING NOTICE

THE BOSTONIAN, NOVEMBER, 1878.

The sandwiches will be from 9825 a. m. until 11. 30 a. m., and from 11. 30 a. m. until 1. 30 p. m. daily.

SIXTEEN CARDS AND LEMENT

Notice of all public or the Commission's meetings will be given and will be posted by the secretary at the table. Notice will also be given to all persons, parties and organizations that have been granted a right to speak of their intention to appear before the Commission. Applications for rights should be made in writing to the Commission at the Commission's Office 10 days prior to the day before each sitting day, except Sundays, when notice should be given on the day before. The Secretary of the Commission will then forward to the Secretary of the State Board of Education the Commission's list of acknowledged speakers. A panel representing Parties are invited to meet the Secretary at 2:00 p.m. on the day before each meeting.

and the Secretary General will be present at all of the above meetings. Those persons who have expressed a desire to speak at places other than those mentioned above, or who are members of the above societies, it is suggested that they should meet the Secretary General at his office, and arrangements can be made for them, and for the time, to speak at any one of the meetings arranged for the date, and for the time, of their convenience.

The Committee's present intention is to hold the following
Meeting in the Auditorium:
Report.

London	January 6th and 7th
	January 10th to 14th
	12th to 25th

Details of office arrangements will be published in due course.
24th FEBRUARY 1910.

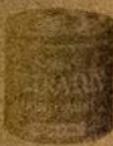

The responsibility of Rotaract in the Northern Region will be described later.
