Indiscreet Light Disconnection

The attention of the N. E. C. Authorities is invited to the indiscreet and wrongful way in which the members of their staff carry out the disconnection of the Consumers' light. There is at present a day-to-day outrageous disconnection of electric lights throughout Lagos.

A consumer who pays his dues regularly finds his light disconnected without any notice. If he his lucky to be present during the disconnection the N.E.C. Staff pays no attention to his pleas no matter how genuinely his pleas are, or no matter who the consumer is. The N.E.C. staff attitude is that of an Automaton, a machine which no one can stop once it is set to move. As discretion is always a better part of valour, the Corporation is hereby advised in his own interest to send out reasonable people for this kind of work otherwise they will one day have to pay very heavily for this.

PWD TO FACE SCOA AGAIN IN LEAGUE MATCH

P.W.D. must have learnt lessons from their match against Railway after three goals up and later drew the match. Today they are meeting the S.C.O.A XI whom they have beaten once this year.

The question fans ask now is, will Thurnder Balogun be in the team tonight? No one knows. Anyway let us hope both teams will entertain fans by playing the game according to the rules.
