Obituary Notices Kenya Mail

HOBINS Nelly Hobins, 44, died on December 15, 1957, at her residence, 201, Kenyatta Avenue, Nairobi, Kenya, after a long illness. She was born on March 25, 1913, in New Zealand. She is survived by her husband, George Hobins, and their only son, Michael Hobins, 18, who was born at Nairobi on June 25, 1939. She had three brothers, Bert Hobins, 44, of London, England; Eric Hobins, 41, of London; and John Hobins, 36, of Nairobi, who also resided in London.

Nelly Hobins was born on May 23, 1913, at Christchurch, New Zealand, and educated at Canterbury Girls' High School. She worked for the National Trust and later for the Ministry of Health. In 1938 she married George Hobins. They had two children: Michael, now 18, and Valerie, now 12. Mrs. Hobins is survived by her husband and son and by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hobins.

ONIMOTO Otaru Onimoto, 42, died on December 22, 1957, at his residence, 28, Mombasa Road, Nairobi, Kenya. He was born in Saitama, Japan, on January 10, 1916, and educated at the University of Tokyo, Japan. He was a member of the Japanese Society of Engineers, Japan.

Mr. Onimoto was married to Katsuji Onimoto, 40, whom he met while working in Japan. They had one child, a son, 12, and were living happily at their home in Nairobi.

He had been a teacher at the Japanese Language School for the past three years, and was well liked. He was a member of the Japanese Association and the Japanese Society of Engineers.

He was a graduate of the University of Tokyo, Japan, and had previously taught at the Japanese School in Nairobi.

Mrs. Onimoto died on December 22, 1957, in Nairobi.

w. died during a trip to the United States. She was the wife of W. N. Newell, who died in 1954.

She is survived by her husband, W. N. Newell, who resides in the United States. They have a daughter, Linda, 18, and a son, James, 16, both of whom are studying in the United States. They have a son, Michael, 18, who is studying in the United States.

Linda and James are members of the same church as their parents.
