PRESS RELEASE

EXCHANGE CONTROL (IMPORT & EXPORT) (Amendment) Order 1958

With effect from the 1st of May, 1958 the Exchange Control (Import and Export) (Amendment) Order, came into operation. By this Order the Minister of Finance has removed the prohibition on the importation of currency notes of any kind, and the importation of securities other than bearer securities.

The existing provisions relating to currency notes which may be exported from Nigeria by a traveller still remain, although this is now £10 in respect of U.K. or West African Notes and £100 in other notes.
