THE UNITED AFRICA COMPANY LIMITED

Recording some of the many families who have found interesting, varied and worthwhile careers with the U.A.C.

On one of his trips up-river over 50 years ago, Mr. Gunn, then Agent of the Royal Niger Company, engaged as his steward a farmer's son... and that is how the Tawari family began their long association with the Company. Gunn Tawari Akele was later apprenticed as an engineer. He made good progress, gained promotion and served with distinction as Chief Engineer in a number of river boats. Gunn Tawari Akele was one of the first Nigerians to be presented with a Gold Watch. Three sons, a grandson, a brother and two [illegible] also took up careers with the Company, and so far the family can boast of [illegible] years' service. This proud record gives the Company great satisfaction.

Sports in briefs

A very interesting invitation to the Nigeria team has come from the aborigines in Australia. The team will meet them on Thursday when the team will be entertained with songs and native displays. The boys are looking forward to it especially to the demonstration of the use of the boomerang which the aborigines have promised to show.

Chief J. K. Randle was a big attraction at today's Melbourne Cup, the glamour event in Australian horse racing. The Chief was so mobbed by a surging crowd eager to touch his flowing robes that he had little time to follow the progress of his favourite sport. He made no bones about it and told reporters: "I love horses and dogs and like to gamble; I think it is fun and I have had plenty of it today". One thing is clear: whether at racing or in the Village, Chief Randle is making a great impression on the Australians and the Olympic visitors from all over the world. He is truly a great ambassador for Nigeria.

The tallest man to arrive in the Village is twenty-six year old seven feet four inches Russian basketball player, Jan Krumins. The normal Olympic Village bed didn't suit him and one of eight feet had to be provided. Krumins weighs sixteen and half stones and uses size sixteen for his shoes.

One other interesting character in the Village is Czech-born Vic Mucha, a member of the Australian wrestling team. He eats twenty eggs a day in two sittings - ten at breakfast and another ten at dinner.

COACH SELECTS NIGERIAN RELAY QUARTET

Mr. Jeremaih Enyeazu coach of the Nigerian team has tonight decided on the four men to run in the 4 x 100 metres relay. They are: Titus Erinle, Theophilus Obi, Edward Ajado and Abdul ...mu; Oluwa is to stand by as a reserve. The quartet will run against the clock and concentrate on baton changing tomorrow (Wednesday).
