West African Examinations Council

University of London General Certificate of Education EXAMINATION, 1954.

The University has agreed that candidates who took the General Certificate of Education Examination, 1954, and who were successful at the Cambridge School Certificate Examination, 1953, may receive certificates for any subjects in which they have passed at the General Certificate of Education Examination, even if their subjects are less than four in number.

2. Candidates eligible for this concession should write to the Registrar, West African Examinations Council, Yaba stating their 1953 Cambridge School Certificate and their 1954 General Certificate of Education examination numbers and centres. Letters must reach the Registrar by 20th August, 1954.

3. Candidates who took, at the General Certificate of Education Examination, subjects in which they gained credits at the Cambridge School Certificate Examination, 1953 ARE NOT ELIGIBLE TO RECEIVE FEE REFUNDS.

4. The University is unable to grant a similar concession to candidates for earlier General Certificate of Education Examinations who gained the School Certificate in the December before they took the General Certificate of Education and who passed the General Certificate of Education Examination in less that four subjects.

Vacancies in Students' Department, Nigeria Office, London:

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates, preferably Nigerian, for appointments as Assistant Secretary and Welfare Officer, and as Accountant, in the Students' Department, Nigeria Office, London.

Candidates should preferably be aged between 25 and 50; they must have wide experience of Nigeria, and should possess an Honours degree from a University in the United Kingdom or a good University College, Ibadan degree. Alternatively and exceptionally, a good general education with considerable practical welfare experience and some experience of administrative responsibility, particularly in student affairs, maybe acceptable.

Details can be seen in the Nigeria Gazette published on 5 August 1954.
