Rememberance Day Sunday 13th November, 1960

A service will be held in the Cathedral Church of Christ on Sunday the 13th November, 1960, at 10.30 a.m.

2. The Commander 2 Brigade representing the General Officer Commanding the Royal Nigerian Army, the Inspector-General of Police and the Commodore Commanding the Royal Nigeria Navy will arrive at the West Door of the Cathedral at 10.25 a.m. and will be met by the Provost.

3. His Excellency the Governor-General will arrive at the West Door of the Cathedral at 10.28 a.m. where he will be met by the Bishop of Lagos.

4. Blocks of seats will be reserved for which tickets will be issued. Tickets for seats reserved for Ex-Servicemen can be obtained from the Secretary, N.E.W.A. 20 Campbell Street.

A number of seats in the Cathedral will be available to the public. Tickets can be obtained from the Ministry of Lagos Affairs.

5. Copies of the Order of Service will be distributed at the Cathedral.

6. Persons attending the service should be in their seats by 10.15 a.m. Uniform, Medals and Decorations should be worn by those entitled to do so.

7. At 10.45 a.m. a Guard of Honour from the 3rd Battalion, Queen's Own Nigerian Regiment and the Royal Nigerian Navy will be mounted at the War Memorial, Idumota.

8. At 11.00 a.m. two guns will be fired. All noise should then cease until two minutes after the hour when one gun will be fired. In the Cathedral, buglers of the Nigeria Police will sound the last Post and the Reveille immediately after the Silence.

9. At the close of the Service His Excellency the Governor-General followed by the Commander 2 Brigade representing the General Officer Commanding the Royal Nigerian Army, the Inspector-General of Police, the Commodore Commanding the Royal Nigeria Navy and the Secretary, N.E.W.A., will leave the Cathedral by the West Door and will drive to the War Memorial by way of the Marina, Badagry and Eko Streets. On arrival at approximately 11.25 a.m. they will be met by the Minister of Internal Affairs, the Deputy Commander 2 Brigade and His Highness the Oba of Lagos. Wreaths will be laid by:

His Excellency the Governor-General,

The Minister of Internal Affairs (on behalf of the Council of Ministers).

The Commander, 2 Brigade, the Royal Nigerian Army

The Inspector-General of Police,

The Commodore Commanding the Royal Nigerian Navy

His Highness Oba Adele II

The Secretary of the Nigerian Ex-Servicemen's Welfare Association

A representative of Nigerian Ex-Servicemen.

10. A March past of Ex-Servicemen, led by the Band of the Queen's Own Nigerian Regiment, will then follow; His Excellency the Governor General will take the salute.

11. His Excellency will leave Idumota by way of Victoria Street and Timbu Square. After these departures those members of the public who wish to lay wreaths may do so.

12. The Cathedral Service and the laying of wreaths will be broadcast by the Nigerian Broadcasting Corporation.

13. The War Memorial will be flood-lit on the nights of 12th, 13th and 14th November.
