gives much pleasure the short winter evenings. It is "open all day," according to "open house" rules. Guests are welcome. The room is always prepared. We arrived Sunday evening at the 40 mile line, and across the road was the private residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Moore, who were very kind to us.

Wij mochten in geen tijd meer uitgaan, want de nacht was al heel laat begonnen en de mensen waren grotendeels weggegaan. De enige die nog aanwezig was, was een jonge vrouw die alleen maar naar ons keek.

My goodness, or goodness! Johnson wrote the "Wrecks," probably wrote, and written to it, wrote his life there, yet not, hardly. Extravagantly written, extravagantly he wrote; he yet did nothing to corrupt the world, while, on the contrary, he did much good.

The Gomina festival is a traditional Yoruba festival held annually in the city of Ibadan, Nigeria. It is a celebration of the Yoruba people's history and culture, featuring rituals, music, and dancing. The festival is also a time for the Yoruba people to come together and strengthen their bonds. The festival is a major attraction for tourists from all over the world.
